Seniors Dedicate '58 Horizon To Board Members

The members of the Alameda Board of Education are representatives of the community in which we live. Continuing our idea of diversity, the board members come from various walks of life to discuss and solve problems which confront our school system. They, too, are united in the achieving of a common, worthwhile goal—the best education possible for the students of Alameda.

Realizing and appreciating the outstanding service rendered by the citizens of Alameda, the senior classes of the Encinal High School respectfully dedicate the 1958 HORIZON to the Alameda Board of Education.

This Is Our Alameda . . .

Unique in its location, promising in its development and offering a pleasant atmosphere to its residents.

"Many Hands Make"

Diversity of background among the students of Encinal is an important factor which fosters mutual appreciation for one another. Our students have come from Japan, Guam, Hawaii, the Philippines and almost all of the Americas; some have graduated, some are still associated students, but all in their turn have shared in making Encinal High School the fine, reputable school that it has become.

Although as individuals we are diverse in many ways, it can be said that as a group Encinal High School students share a common goal—to obtain an education that will foster good citizenship, moral integrity, and develop individual potential and initiative.

Thus, when one thinks of the associated students of Encinal and the accomplishments they have made, he feels with the staff of the 1958 HORIZON, that indeed—"MANY HANDS MAKE"—if we are willing to develop the minds which guide these hands and apply the ideas that these hands carry with them.

Superintendent Expresses Confidence in Youth

The year 1958 may well be remembered by graduates and parents alike as marking the beginning of a new era. Progress in scientific achievements has focused all of our thoughts upon the future and the significant place that the education of youth plays in our future. More than ever before we share in the responsibility of helping youth to set standards and to affirm with them our fundamental belief in the basic values in our educational program.

This 1958 HORIZON records the achievements of the student body of Encinal High School. It honors the graduating seniors who have already demonstrated that as individuals they have been able to profit from their experiences here. To them will be given the task of making critical judgments which will contribute to the welfare of this world, to finding new ways to solve new tasks. We feel confident that their affirmation of the permanent values in life, of integrity, of self-discipline, of social responsibility, and of a cardinal belief in the necessity for the development of men and women who have the power to live richly, will provide a sound foundation for decision making. We know that their decisions will be to that end that the dignity of the individual and the good of society as a whole may be protected.

DONALD M. RODERICK
Superintendent of Schools

Horizon Is Symbolic To Principal

Coins and currency of the United States serve not only as a medium of exchange, but also as an expression of the ideals and aspirations of a people. They contain a symbolism which should be understood and prized by every American citizen.

Our HORIZON also has symbolic significance because it too is the medium through which our students and faculty have concretely expressed their ideals, aspirations, and achievements. It is a treasure-house of memories, friendships and accomplishments, more highly prized with each passing year.

The faith and confidence of Americans in their ideals and democratic life give the basis of value for our currency. Your high school experience is the medium through which students have had the opportunity, each to his own ability, of increasing his faith and value; not only in himself but in his school and country.

I wish to express a deep personal pride and appreciation to those who were directly responsible for the editing and production of this beautiful yearbook. Miss Marilyn Hey as faculty editor, Mr. Clarence Kline as faculty business manager, Edna Washington, editor, and Janet Seymour and Charles Bowdish, co-business managers.

In addition I wish to thank the entire yearbook staff and all others whose hearts and hands have so diligently toiled to capture in these pages the experiences we have shared this past year.

Students Progress With Faculty Aid

Endeavoring to assist each student in his progress through high school and to develop potentialities that this student possesses, the administration has provided the student with an advisor and a counselor to supplement the general faculty who aid him in his schooling at Encinal.

The advisor greets the student each morning for a ten minute period to read the daily announcements and to give special instructions for the day. Before the closing of each term, the advisor helps the student to plan a well-rounded program that will be beneficial to the student and will meet the school requirements necessary for graduation.

Consulting frequently with the student during the semester, the counselor advises him in selecting subjects, alleviating personal problems, and in choosing an occupation or college upon the completion of high school.

History, English Courses Present Challenge

Language Arts and History Departments maintain the largest student enrollment because of the English and history requirement for graduation.

U. S. History, a required course, presents to the student a comprehensive view of the United States from its earliest growth to the present stages. Modern History, although not a required course, presents a challenge to the student who is interested in recent world history and its contemporary problems which concern all world citizens.

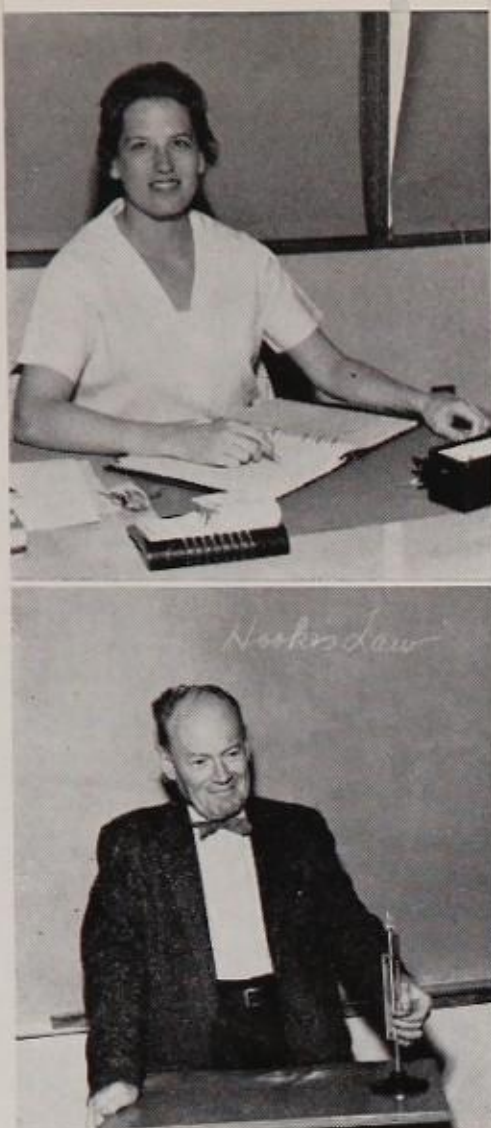

Honors English, an addition to the department, is designed to furnish a background in great literature and simulate college techniques for the student who prepares himself for college classroom.

Through the medium of three foreign languages—French, Latin, Spanish—students learn to understand people of other lands as they learn languages other than English.

In this era of unprecedented stress upon science and mathematics, Encinal High School students are taking preparatory steps toward meeting the demand for scientists and mathematicians. According to school records, 55 per cent of our 853 students are enrolled in math classes; these students take either basic math, algebra, geometry, trigonometry or slide rule.

General science, biology, chemistry, physiology and physics are the science courses that account for a 49 per cent enrollment of students. After-school science projects, under faculty supervision, enable students to further an interest in a particular area of science study.

Other Departments Round Out Program

The Commercial, Fine Arts, and Industrial Arts Departments offer courses for the student that are not required for graduation, but add to the well-rounded student.

Advanced students of the commercial classes can put into practice what they have learned by engaging in the school's work-experience program; the students work in private businesses to gain experience in their chosen study rather than to earn a salary.

Studying vocal and instrumental music, students of the fine arts department devote class periods to perfecting selections which they present on special occasions.

Industrial arts students employ hand skills to complete projects for display.

Every student entering high school is programmed, unless medically exempt, into a P.E. class. There are three classes from which to choose: modern dance, California Cadet Corps, or the regular gym classes.

Origination of dance routines provides the modern dance girls with the opportunity to develop creative expression and gracefulness. The Cadet Corps' aim is to develop leadership among high school boys as they learn military routines and discipline. Students in regular gym classes find physical outlet, competition, and rewards of teamwork on the volleyball and basketball courts, hockey and football fields and the baseball diamond.

Seniors Graduate On Friday The 13th

The class of June 1958 started its journey through Encinal in September, 1954. It consisted of five advisories working as a whole to put on the noon dance, "1B Bop."

As 2B's the class presented "Daisy Mae's Choice," the first "girl-ask-boy" Soph Hop which, for obvious reasons, was the most successful dance in the history of E.H.S.

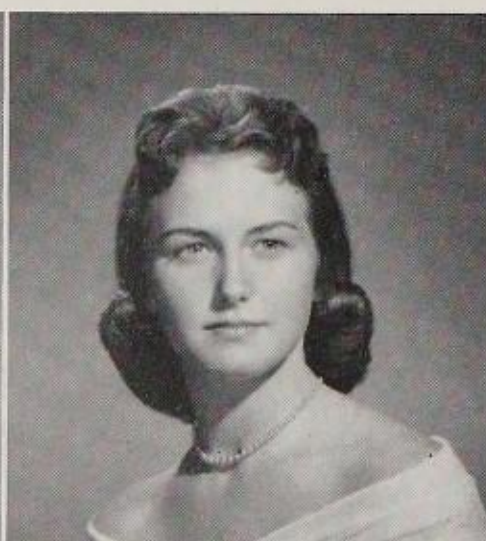

The class chose turquoise cardigans for their Junior sweaters and presented the Junior Prom, "Carousel," which featured prancing horses and colorful giraffes on a merry-go-round.

As 4A's the class picked light blue jackets for the boys and royal blue blazers for the girls to signify membership in the Senior class. The class presented the Senior Play, "Murder Walks Among Us," which was a great success.

The year was highlighted by the Mother-Daughter Tea, Senior Assembly, Senior Banquet, and climaxed by the long-awaited graduation ceremony on Friday, June 13, 1958.

4B's Present Mystery-Comedy

"Murder Walks Among Us," a mystery-comedy in three acts, was presented by the class of June 1958 on November 7 and 8 in the E.H.S. auditorium.

The play concerned the murder of Wilbur R. Harrington, an eccentric invalid, who was a boarder at the home of Marian Gray. Suspects in the case included the various roomers, as well as the housekeeper and her teenage nephew. Suzy Gray, Marian Gray's precocious teenage sister, tried to solve the mystery, much to the annoyance of the detective and the delight of the audience.

Mr. John Cotter, E.H.S. drama instructor, directed the production, assisted by Wanda Dallas and Marilynne Purbeck, student directors.

4A's Present Romantic Comedy

During the four years they attended Encinal, the graduates of February 1959 worked together for the benefit of their class and their school.

In April the 4A Class presented the Senior Play, "Goodbye, My Fancy," a three-act romantic-comedy. The cast of 20 was headed by Suzanne Martine and Walt King.

As 3B's, the class was the first in Encinal's history to purchase Junior Pins, starting a tradition for other classes to follow.

The 3A's chose yellow cardigans for their Junior Sweaters. They also assisted the 3B Class in presenting the Junior Prom, "Carousel."

"Space Fantasy," presented by the then-2B Class, was the sixth traditional Soph Hop held at Encinal.

As freshmen, the class showed itself very interested in school affairs by holding various sales and money-making activities.

4A's Star In Romantic Comedy

"Goodbye, My Fancy," a romantic comedy in three acts, was the dramatic production of the class of February 1959. The play, presented April 17 and 18 in the E.H.S. gym, was termed a huge success. It was the story of a Congresswoman, Agatha Reed, who returned to her Alma Mater to receive an honorary degree. The plot revolved around the reason for Miss Reed's expulsion from the college 20 years ago, and her choice of a husband between the college president, James Merrill, and Matt Cole, "Life" photographer. After three lively acts all turned out for the best. Agatha and Matt became engaged and Merrill regained the love of his daughter, Ginny.

Mr. John Cotter directed the play, assisted by Wilma Johnson, student director.

Juniors Purchase Pins And Sweaters

The main event of the fall semester for the class of June '59 was the purchasing of their Junior pins; the entire class showed an overwhelming response to these pins.

To help raise money for their treasury, the class continued collecting dues of 25 cents per person per semester. They also sold binder paper, Jet bookcovers and steno notebooks to raise additional funds.

The class shared their gala Junior Prom, "Cafe de la Paix," with the 3A class. The gym was colorfully decorated with many balloons surrounding a replica of the Eiffel Tower which rose from the center of the gym. With the support of the entire student body, the affair was a complete success.

Sophomores Look Toward Future

The class of June '60, as the sophomore class, planned many events for their high sophomore year. The first and most important event was the presentation of their Soph Hop. Every member of the class looked forward to the occasion with enthusiasm.

Two candy sales which were held in the spring netted a substantial amount for the class treasury. The class is now looking forward to the coming of their Junior year because these lively 2B's have big ideas for that future time.

Student council members plan

TUESDAY

Student Council, the governing body of Encinal, convenes every TUESDAY morning. Students representing each advisory discuss student policies, social events and school activities. At the beginning of each term, Student Council presents the Opening Dance to welcome the incoming freshmen.

Soccer, not Sock-Her.

The Encinal lunch period is divided into two sections: fourth and fifth. Students may bring their lunch, buy a hot lunch in the cafeteria or go elsewhere . . .

G.A. officers plan the coming G.A. meeting.

WEDNESDAY has been established as the day for the extended 20 minute advisory, a weekly period which enables classes and certain organizations to convene during school time.

The Girls' Association which holds its monthly meeting during this time plans its main function, the Freshman Reception, which is given at the beginning of each semester.

School elections also are held during WEDNESDAY morning advisory. Students then assume the important responsibility of selecting class and student body leaders.

The selection of officers requires concentration.

Supervised by Colonel Long, the C.C.C. is an alternate Physical Education course for boys, which serves as a preparation for future military service. Cadets learn to handle and care for equipment, to plot strategy, and to drill in a proper military fashion. On WEDNESDAY the Cadets are required to wear their uniforms for the weekly dress inspection.

Organizations Build The Individual

Organizations are made up of many hands working together to bring out leadership in the individual, and to promote school spirit.

One learns not only in the classroom, but also in extra-curricular activities. Through many of our clubs and activities, students acquire additional skills and knowledge; social outlets, found in the varied organizations, complete the program of the well-rounded student.

EHS Well Represented By Officers

The student body officers act as ambassadors of good will by representing Encinal at some of the high schools in the A.C.A.L. Fall President, Curt Motton, addressed the Alameda High School student body prior to the Alameda-Encinal football game. In the spring, President Snider traveled to San Leandro High School, taking two acts for their A.C.A.L. talent show. The annual cheerleading clinic held at Berkeley in the spring was attended by Head Yell Leader Kent Sorenson along with his assistants, the pom-pom girls, and members of pep club.

As the co-ordinate body between students and faculty, the fall Student Council met weekly under the direction of student body President Curtell Motton.

The 32 representatives approved and presented the traditional semi-annual welcoming dance, "Pleasure Island," while sponsoring an attendance contest between freshmen advisories.

Council members also sponsored a series of assemblies including the men's faculty program, Cal's yell-leaders' demonstration, A.C.A.L. invitational talent show, and the traditional student Christmas pageant.

Car Check New And Successful

One of the most successful activities carried on by the Student Council this spring was a car Safety Check, co-sponsored with the Echo. A number of cars were put to the test with nine passing completely, and their owners received safety stickers for the windshields of their cars.

The council's first activity of the semester was the opening dance, "Caribbean Cruise," under the direction of co-chairmen Walt King and Claire Comerford.

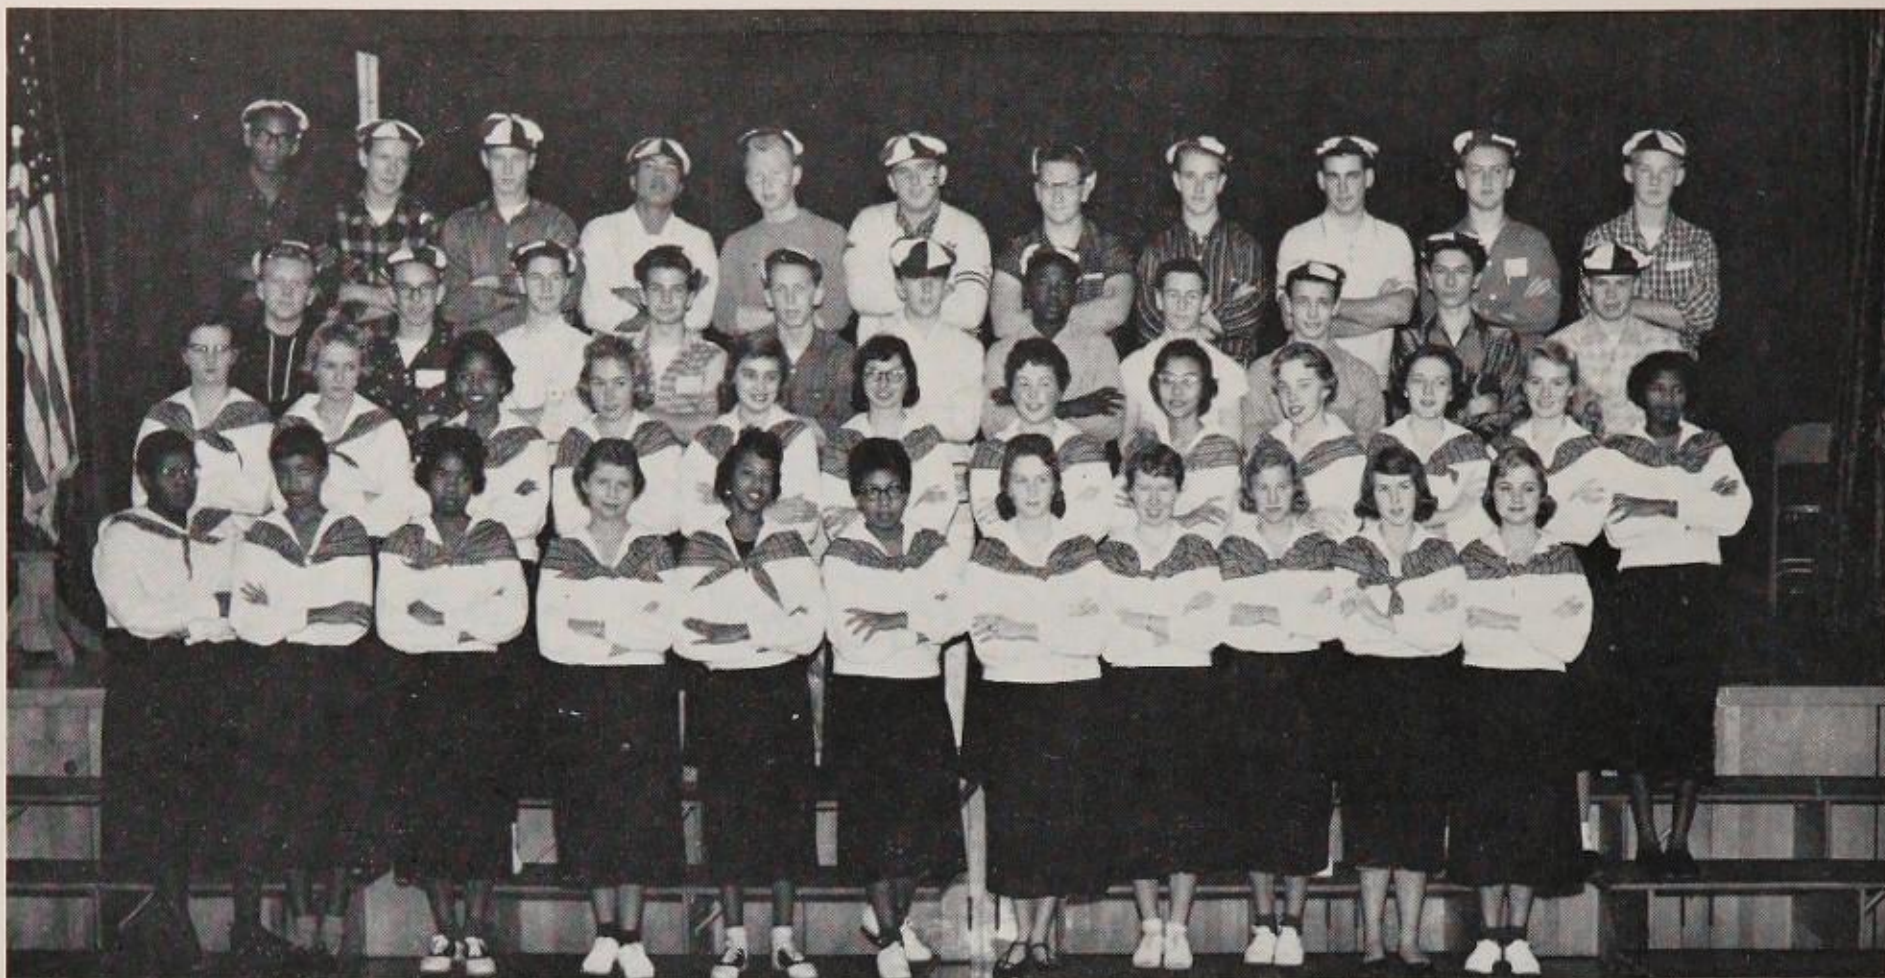

The council also sponsored entertainment at the assemblies, which included the Marine Corps Band, and Atomic Science Program, and a student talent show.

C.S.F.'ers Attend Convention

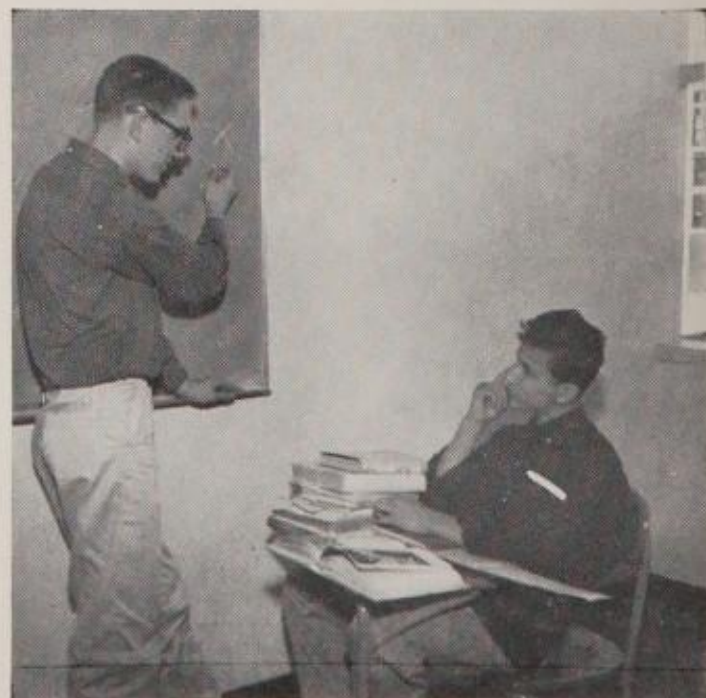

Encinal's C.S.F. chapter, often referred to as the "Can't Stand Failure" group, is the highest scholastic honor society at our school. The club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Winberg, selects its members each semester on the basis of their grades.

Several club members attended the annual California Scholarship Federation convention, which was held in Modesto in the spring. They found the trip exciting and enjoyable, as well as educational.

In May the C.S.F., under the leadership of President Kathleen Casey, presented its annual school assembly. Club pins were awarded at that time to those who had become life members.

Members of the Industrious Future Faculty will vouch for the fact that teaching can be fun, for they have participated in the club's new project of observing teaching in grammar schools. This program proved to be a success under the leadership of club presidents, LaVernya Carr and Carole Johnson.

The I.F.F.'ers, under the sponsorship of Miss Scherman, attended a regional club convention at the University of San Francisco and one at the College of the Pacific in Stockton. They found both of these programs enjoyable as well as educational.

Thespians Present Plays At Assemblies

Thespians are those students who have been in dramatic programs at school or have helped in their production. Each semester the drama classes present a one-act play for the Thespian Assembly. In the fall the advanced class presented "Why I Am A Bachelor," a lecture with illustrations. The spring play, "Fireman, Save My Child," was an old-fashioned melodrama presented by the beginning drama students.

Riflery Amid G.A.A. Sports

Avid sports enthusiasts, under the supervision of Mrs. Harriman, comprise the Girls' Athletic Association, which is a special P.E. class held during seventh period. This year its members participated in swimming, basketball, softball, tennis and soccer programs, as well as riflery, an innovation this spring directed by Colonel Long.

The G.A.A., which belongs to the G.A.A.-A.C.A.L., sponsored its annual playday here at Encinal in May and invited Alameda and San Leandro High Schools to participate. Encinal's G.A.A. was invited to the annual playday, held this year at Castro Valley High School, which was attended by all high schools that are A.C.A.L. members.

G.A. Reception Goes "Calypso"

The new G.A. officers for the Fall 1957 semester, headed by President Signe Slangerup, planned and presented the Freshman Reception, "Calypso." A senior "sister" was assigned to each freshman girl to help her get acquainted with the school and the students.

In December the G.A. sponsored a Christmas toy drive for the new pediatric ward at the Alameda Hospital. The girls donated old toys which were useless to them but which were appreciated by the hospital's sick children.

In the spring the G.A. held its annual fashion show, which was competently supervised by Vice President Wilma Johnson and under the sponsorship of Miss Holland. School outfits, sports ensembles, and party clothes were modeled.

A check for $50 was presented to Encinal's Foreign Exchange Student Fund by the spring G.A. President, Gloria Roberson.

Varsity Gridders Lose Only One Game

The 1957 Edition of the Encinal High football team finished the season with the best record in the school's history. Although missing the A.C.A.L. (Southern Division) Championship by only a single game, the Jet gridders compiled a very impressive record of six wins, one defeat and one tie.

The lone tie was the result of our first practice game with cross-town rival, Alameda High. This game was high-lighted by hard, clean play from both the Jet and Hornet squads. When the final gun sounded, the score was a 20 to 20 deadlock.

After winning their final two practice games with Vallejo and South San Francisco, the Jet Varsity entered league play with a resounding 53 to 0 decision over the Arroyo Dons. The next league opponent to fall before the high flying Jets were the Hayward Farmers. The score was 19 to six in a night contest at Hayward on the following Friday. Encinal had no difficulty in defeating highly rated Castro Valley, a 47 to 12 decision. Although beaten 38 to 12 by San Leandro in their next to the last game, the Jet grid-ders retaliated in their final contest with a 24 to 13 margin over the San Lorenzo Rebels.

J.V., Freshman Grid Teams Win Majority Of Games

Following in the footsteps of the Varsity, the Encinal J.V. and Frosh-Soph football teams also had very successful seasons. The J.V. squad, coached by Mr. Read, completed the schedule with a fine record of five wins, two ties and one loss. The Frosh-Soph eleven also had an outstanding record. Coach Foster and his Baby Jets came through the season with a five hundred average, winning three and losing three.

Jet Basketballers Capture League Crown

For the second straight season, the Encinal Varsity basketball team swept through their league games to capture the championship. Riding on a string of 18 straight victories, the Jet cagers met the Berkeley High Yellowjackets in an A.C.A.L. playoff game. Although losing this contest by a score of 53 to 41, and also missing the chance to play in the Tournament of Champions, the Varsity hoopsters did compete in the Gridley Tournament where they won first place.

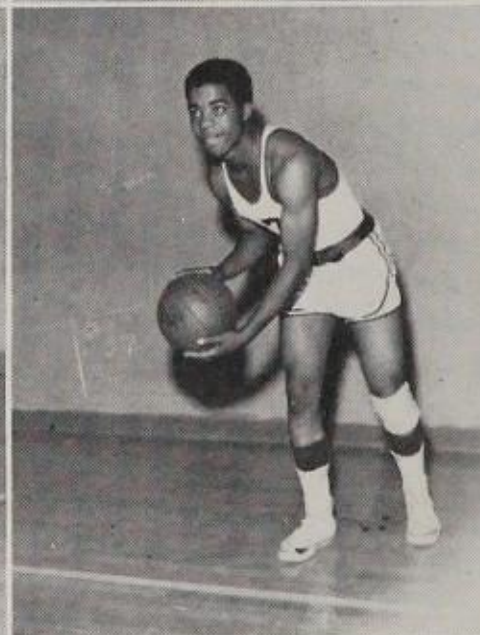

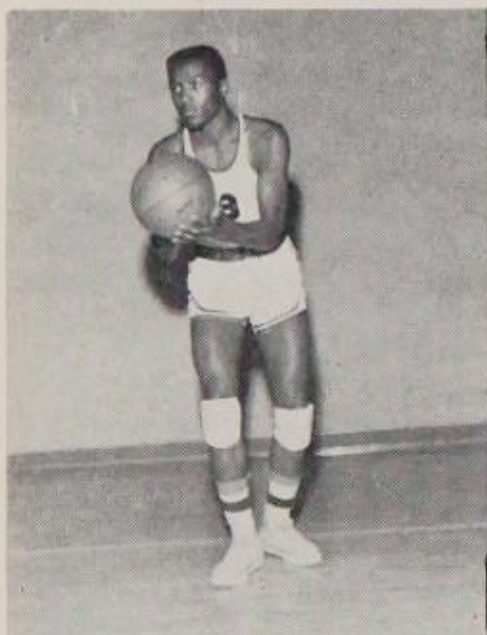

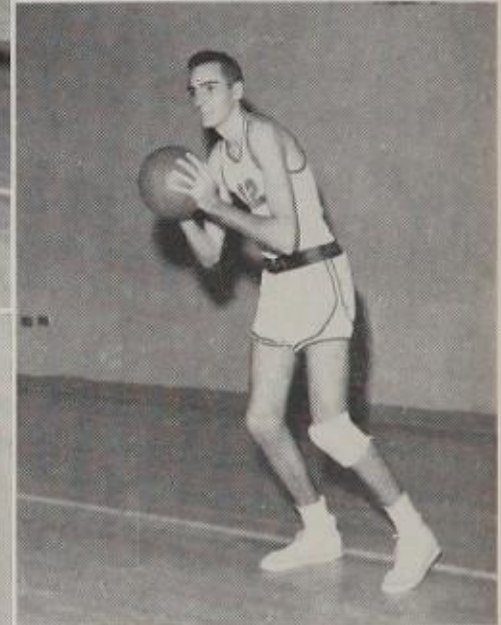

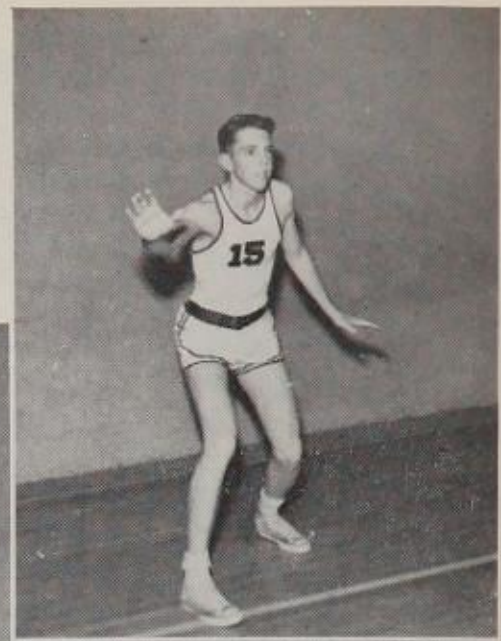

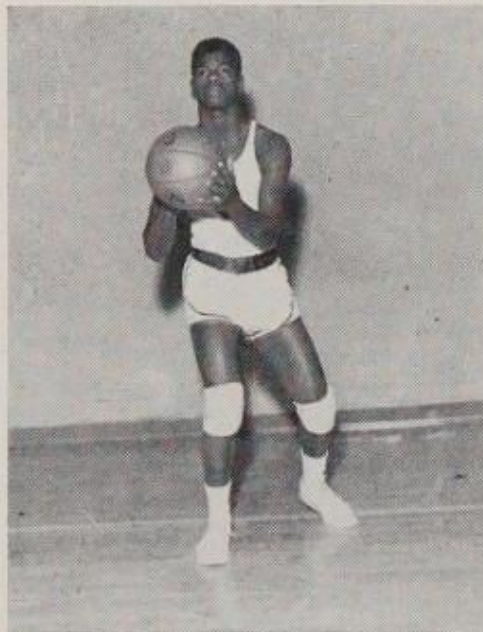

With a number of lettermen returning from the 56-57 championship squad, the Varsity basketball team completed the practice schedule with only one loss, a 49-44 decision in favor of Polytechnic of San Francisco. All of the other pre-season contests were won comparatively easily by the Jets.

Continuing with their overwhelming success, the Encinal cagers met and defeated twice, all of the other teams in the Southern A.C.A.L. Thus successfully defending their league crown, the Varsity basketballers were again proud holders of the title.

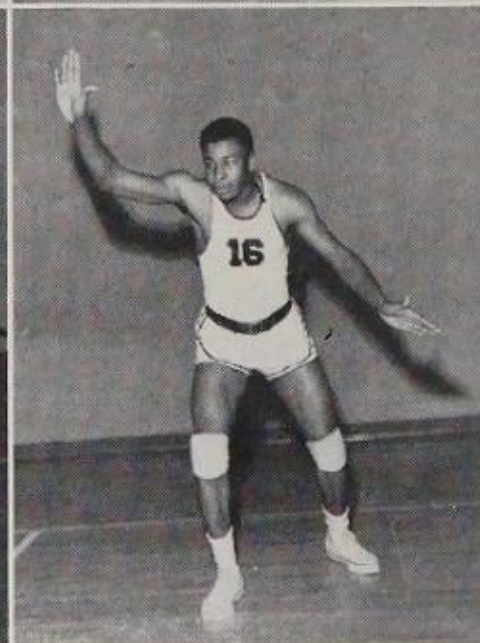

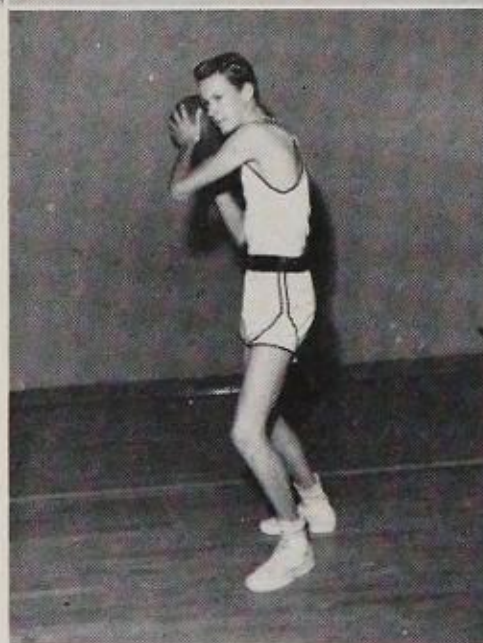

Part of the great success enjoyed by the team should be attributed to the fine coaching job done by Dick Jaensch and his assistant coaches. Also, a great portion of the success must be given to the players themselves, for they exhibited a top brand of teamwork and sportsmanship in all the games they played.

J.V., Freshmen Quintet Display Fine Talent

Winning a high percentage of their games, the Encinal J.V. and Freshmen basketball teams did very well in following the winning ways of the Varsity five. The Junior Varsity quintet, under the capable guidance of coach Jim Marberry, completed their schedule with an overall record of 17 victories and only six defeats. Similarly, coach Paul Foster and his Frosh cagers compiled an excellent record of 13 wins to five losses. Considering these two fine teams, the Varsity should have some excellent material for the coming seasons.

Encinal Nine Competes In Successful Season

Combining last season's Varsity baseball players with former J.V. team members, Coach George Read has come up with a starting nine that can hold their own against any foe. Continuing with the success enjoyed by the '57 squad, an eleven win seven loss record, this year's Varsity baseball team has been welded into a close-knit, efficient outfit.

Some of the players that Coach Read is relying on to come through this season are Shortstop Harper, Pitcher Chuck Harless, Shortstop Tom White, Second Baseman Fred Elmore, Third Baseman Robert Davis, Outfielder Curt Motton, Outfielder John Bownds, Outfielder Mike Jaramillo, Third Baseman Marshall Smith, Shortstop Julius Lewis, Outfielder Gary Fenstermaker and First Baseman Wilver Stargell.

J.V. Baseball Team Produces Future Stars

Similar to the Varsity, the Encinal J.V. baseball team has developed into a fine, hard working squad. Directed by Coach John Matula, the J.V. nine has come through very nicely against other J.V. teams in the area. The main purpose of the Junior Varsity teams is to provide an opportunity for the younger players to develop their talents and obtain useful experience. The Encinal J.V. teams have been very successful in accomplishing this and have trained many future Varsity stars.

Coach Cadwell Builds Solid Track Team

Mr. George Cadwell, head coach of the Encinal track team, has once again succeeded in developing a squad that can compete with the best of them. Relying on team strength rather than individual stars, Coach Cadwell has put together a solid squad that can always be counted on to do their best. Also, the Jet Varsity and "B" tracksters have shown that they are able to compete against schools with double Encinal's enrollment and still win by a comfortable margin.

Much of the track team's success this season must be attributed to the fine spirit and "never-give-up" attitude of the team members themselves, for they can always be relied upon to either win or place, in any number of track and field events. Similarly, Coaches Cadwell and Jaensch should be credited with a majority of the team's good fortune, for they have given great effort to help the individual team members round into shape and perform at their best.

Led by Head Cheerleaders Elbert Humphers and Kent Sorenson, the high spirited fall and spring rooting sections cheered our teams to many victories.

Assisting the cheerleaders were the pom-pom girls and the regular assistants, who represented Encinal's Jets in a fine manner and contributed immensely toward their success.

Pom-Pom Girls Assist Yell Leaders

This year our Pom-Pom Girls were more spirited than ever. They were led by head Pom-Pom Girl Karen Snider who developed many of the dance routines. Her assistants were Daphne Robinson, Barbara Quinn, Tina Baker, Janice Jackson and Joan LeMoine. The girls rehearsed after school and on Saturdays to prepare themselves for game rallies, games and student assemblies.

P.E. Teachers Introduce Field Hockey

The P.E. teachers introduced a game both new and exciting which is called soccer. It not only builds excitement, but also causes sore shins when one plays too close to another player. Some of the other sports played were volleyball, basketball, hockey, archery and folk-dancing.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 1958 HORIZON was produced in collaboration with:

Don Bosco Photography Studio
California Art and Engraving
Alameda Times-Star Press
S. K. Smith Company

The yearbook staff members wish to express their appreciation to the following persons from whom they received assistance:

Mr. Lowell Mell for his cooperation with the staff and for his aid in securing dates for picture scheduling

Miss Jean Wilson for her counsel with the staff members and for her support in general

Mrs. Marian Nicosia for her advice to the art editors and to the staff

Mr. Clarence Kline for his proficiency with a camera and for his irreplaceable assistance

Miss Marilyn Hey for her advice to the various editors and her encouraging confidence in our entire staff

Faculty for their help with picture identifications and for their assistance in general

Members of the student body for their fine cooperation throughout the year

Mr. Bob Moon of California Art and Engraving for his recommendations which improved our book, and for his friendly attitude which inspired our editors

Mr. Marc Schowalter and the other members of the Times-Star Press for their calm, prompt, accurate work

Messrs. Bud Bosco and Mike Cirimele of Don Bosco Photography Studio for their patience and suggestions

Mr. Ralph Buckwalter of the S. K. Smith Company for his amiable attitude while working on our covers

Mr. Clyde Sunderland for loaning the HORIZON staff an aerial view of our isle city

Miss Madge Holland for the gracious giving of her time.

The advertisers whose financial support made our book a reality
